Military One Source from the Department of Defense is your 24/7 gateway to trusted information, resources and confidential help. When MilLife happens, it's your "first line of support" — giving service members and military families tools to stay well and thrive. Military One Source provides a single gateway to responsive Family Crisis Assistance, available 24/7, 365 days a year for all USAR Soldiers. It provides a unit and community based solution to connect people to people. By pinpointing Families-in-need and local community resources, the AR can quickly connect the Soldier Family and resources thus providing installation-commensurate services in the geographic location of the crisis.

Army Reserve Family Programs: <https://www.usar.army.mil/ARFP/>

Army Reserve Family Programs (ARFP) is a comprehensive blend of quality-of-life programs in support of Department of Defense activities. ARFP staff serve as the primary coordinating resource, who provide a multitude of unit and community-based services that foster the growth, development, and readiness of Soldiers and Families assigned to the Command. Additionally, ARFP provides a single gateway to responsive Family Crisis Assistance. ARFP provides a unit and community-based solution that connects people to people. By pinpointing Families-in-need and local community resources, the ARFP professionals can quickly connect the Soldier's Family to resources thus providing installation appropriate services in the geographic location of the crisis.

Veterans Crisis Line: For Crisis Response (24/7) 1-800-273-8255 (press 1) or TEXT 838255

<https://www.veteranscrisisline.net/>

The Veterans Crisis Line is a free, confidential resource that's available to anyone, even if you're not registered with VA or enrolled in VA health care. The caring, qualified responders at the Veterans Crisis Line are specially trained and experienced in helping Veterans of all ages and circumstances.

211.org. It is essential for TPU CHs to have a ready list of community services they can use in times of Soldier and Family crisis and/or emergency. 211.org is an excellent web site CHs may use to compile local services and community support organizations. <https://www.211.org/>

Give an Hour. Harnesses the skill, expertise and generosity of volunteer mental health professionals across the country to serve Soldiers in need. You can find a provider on-line at <https://giveanhour.org/military/>.

Army Community Service. Army Publishing Directorate published an expedited revision of AR 608-1 which incorporates expanded access to ACS policy for ARNG and USAR Soldiers. The new AR 608-1 policy states "Members of the ARNG and USAR and their identification card eligible Family members are eligible for full access to installation ACS service while on an active duty and during the first year post mobilization, after which time, and for so long as the Soldier remains a member of the ARNG or USAR, eligibility is retained on a space available basis." <https://www.armymwr.com/programs-and-services/personal-assistance>

Hospital and Family Life USAR CHs. USARC has a list of CHs who have the 7R (Hospital) and/or 7K (Family Life) Skill Identifier. If you (the Chaplain) would like to consult with such a Chaplain for guidance and assistance in this regard, please contact your Command CH or the POC below.

Public Private Partnership (P3O). If you have a USAR Soldier who is unemployed or underemployed, contact your nearest Private-Public Partnership Office (P3O): <http://www.usar.army.mil/Featured/Private-Public-Partnership/Find-local-support/>
