

Follow Up Activity 3: Examples of Welcome

Please look at the resources, below, that highlight welcome and special needs plans. You may know of additional excellent sources of information as well. As you investigate them, ask yourself:

Questions:

- What is the philosophy behind your selected program?
- Is this for a particular religious group? Which one?
- Is this for a particular age or need?
- What is asked of leaders/volunteers?
- How does benefit a congregations?
- What are ideas that you can use in your Army Chapel program?
- What are limits to you using them in your Army Chapel program?

Resources:

- Hope Church (sign language translators as well as Buddies)
- Friendship Ministries
- Rose Kennedy
- Army EFMP Slides
- National Organization on Disabilities - www.nod.org
- Learning Disabilities in the Church
- www.Engagingdisability.org
- USAG Baden-Wuerttemberg RSO Sunshine Club, Buddies, Trip to Kanaan, "Gabi Goes to Mass"
- The Ministry of Ushers
- That All Might Worship
- So You Have Been Asked to Greet or Usher
- Gospel Light's Special Needs Smart Pages
- <http://islamiccenter.org/people-with-disabilities-from-an-islamic-perspective/>
- <http://jewishspecialneeds.blogspot.com/>
- <https://oca.org/parish-ministry/parishdevelopment/children-with-special-needs-and-the-orthodox-christian-family>
- <https://www.lds.org/ensign/2005/08/embracing-members-with-special-needs?lang=eng& r=1>

That All Might Worship

Special Needs Child – available at USAG Ansbach ACS - <https://www.educationlifeskills.com>